My son - haligan.

Today my son asked me "which story you will you never forget?" and I told him a story from his childhood.

One day, I was reading a newspaper and suddenly I heard a loud noise. I just ran and saw you and the broken window. It's clear to a fool that you broke the window. I was very furious by your and followed you. You were running too fast and I had no choice but to come home. I was calmly reading the newspaper and did not notice how quickly time passed. I was nervously pacing the room, waiting for you to come back.

When it was too late I rushed to look for you. I millions of time felt sorry that threaten you. I find you in parks, gardens, shops and your favorite cafe. When I was very sad and came back to home my mother threaten me that she will call police. I cried your name. "Son! God, Son! come to me please." And at this moment the ball that you likes very much was flying at my big hand. I understood that you were at home. I ran into the house very quickly and started to find you. You came to me with sad face. And asked me, "Sorry dad, I will never do that again." I said you "Oh my dear, I will never do that again." I embraced you and we live with loving and care.

"Oh, father, I don't know this story" - my son said.
"I love you my son" - said I with smile.
