Father and son. †

Little boy Sergey and his father lived in their house at outskirts of their town one day Sergey broke the window of the house while playing football when father knew it he became furious. He threaten the boy that he will be punished. Sergey ran off from the house and his father enter back to the house.

When 3 hours ran out father started worry his son hadn't come back for that time. And after 2 hours had left. Father started to pace the floor. He didn't know what he must do. He put his clothes on then, went looking the son father looked for him everywhere: in forest, in town, on river. But it was unsuccessfully he was permed and didn't know where his son.

He decided to go back to home. Suddenly ball broke the window and arrived at him. Father was shocked his hat dropped on the ground. Door opened and father saw his little son Sergey. He was happy to see him again. He sat down, his son walked to him and then they embraced each other.
