Nowadays there are a lot of films. And many of them have a great influence on us. Some of films evolve our creative skills and some of them reinforce our emotions and feelings. As for me my favourite film is „Looking for Alaska“ and it influenced on me a lot. This film is about a group of teens about their adventures, love, live perspective and studying in college. They like to read a lot and after when they read a regular book they decided to search „a great possible“ The book's central question posed by girl who's name is Alaska is, „How we will ever get out of this labyrinth of suffering“. In one day she had a car accident and die. The characters experience denial, anger and profound grief. Allegedly of this film is that life is a labyrinth a maze of pain, confusion and loss. The ultimate lesson is not about finding a single exit of this labyrinth but about the necessity of the search itself. This film has a great influence on my outlook. I understood that we should live boldly, forgive others and ourselves and find meaning in human connection despite the inevitable pain. Also I can alleged that this film it's a call to move beyond a boring, safe existence and to actively engage with the world, its mysteries and its people.

I want to tell you about my favourite film, "The society of died poets" and my attitude about this film. The main character is a boy who is going to school. Their parents wants him to be a good student and he must get only good marks. His father wants that his son will be a doctor. But the boy wants to be an actor. His father didn't like his choice and didn't agree with him. In the end of the film the boy was very disappointed about his father and boy decided to finish his life in suicide. Author wants to say that all people can make choice themselves. and nobody can't disagree with it. This film had a great influence on me.

In my opinion, it is very strong and deep film and it can play a main role in somebody's life, because this film talks about career dreams and ability to do what you want. I understand that I and only I must make a choice myself. Opinion, thinks and it will be showed, that I am ready to make any mistakes when I will do what I want and went on my way of life. I'm glad that I saw this film and my advice will be that every student should see it.
